REAL WORLD COMPUTING

- 110 JON HONEYBALL. Does Microsoft have the infrastructure in place to cope with the more streamlined release cycle it so desperately needs to adopt?
- 113 PAUL OCKENDEN. These days, most people seem content with the technology products they already have. Have we finally reached "peak tech"?
- 116 CLEMENTINE VIOUX .Designing and launching your mobile app is only half the battle - managing regular updates and keeping users happy is just as vital to ongoing success.
- 118 DAVEY WINDER. Worrying stories from readers call Google's morality into doubt - yet elsewhere the company is taking security more seriously than ever.
- 120 STEVE CASSIDY. Confusion reigns over subnets, putting many people off. It's time to bust the myths around the subject.
